

Pilots of the 13th Fighter-Interceptor Squadron saw this welcome waiting for them on the flight line at Selfridge when they returned victorious from a skills contest at Otis Air Force Base, Massachusetts, in April 1954. The men had just won the Eastern Air Defense Force rocket gunnery championship, and as they approached their home field, base personnel on the ground

49th ARS Pararescue Section at Selfridge AFB, Michigan 1954

Selfridge, Michigan 1954
Rough'n tough 49ARS PJs
Jeczala, Vargas, Whiteman

"Better a double exposure, than no exposure!"

The famous 31ARS PJ Sctn.
Log Book
1954 P.I.

Later ripped off by unknown culprit!

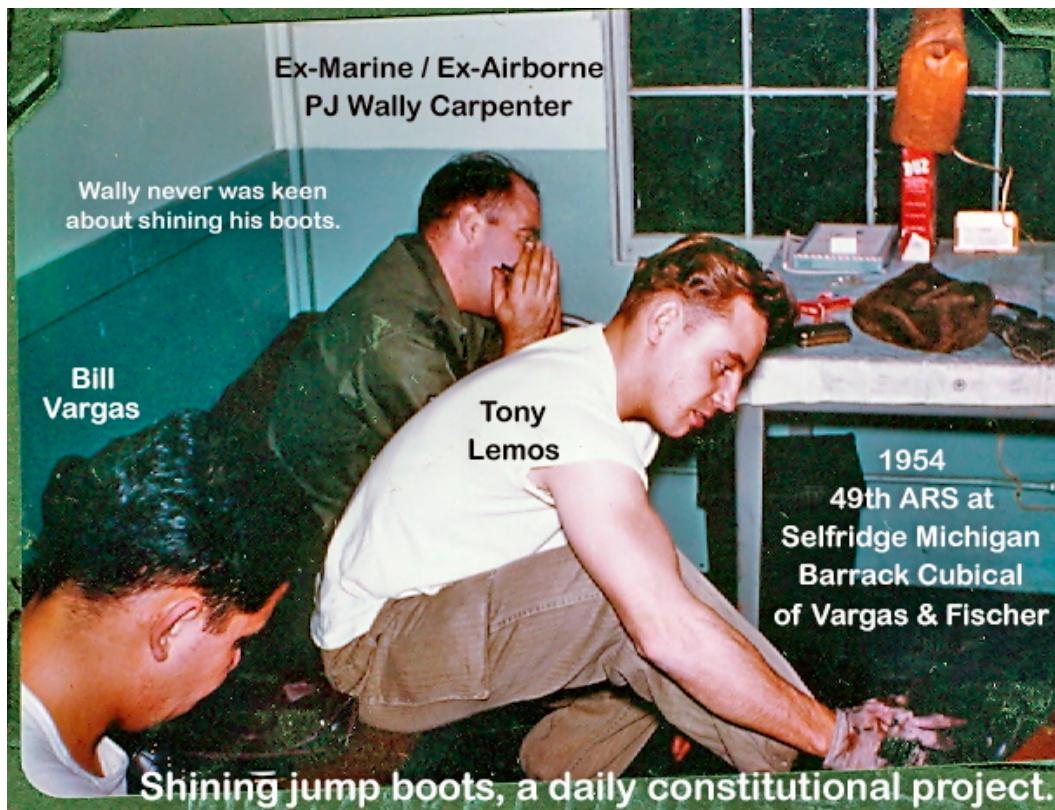

PJ Headgear 1954

Gene Armstrong 1954

Ex-Marine / Ex-Airborne
PJ Wally Carpenter

Wally never was keen about shining his boots.

Bill
Vargas

Tony Lemos

1954
49th ARS at Selfridge Michigan
Barrack Cubical
of Vargas & Fischer

Shining jump boots, a daily constitutional project.

PJ drinking milk???

Ray Cannon
Udo Fischer
near Mio MI
1954

49thARS PJs
on Field Trip

"Ray"

Udo Fischer & Eugene Ingram 1954 'Field Training' LA swamps