

Rescue team from DaNang flew this Albatross into enemy fire to save two pilots in Tonkin Gulf. This group included Capt. Ralph Angstadt; Capt. Robert Morita; Capt. John Sommercamp, TSgt. Robert Hill, SSgt. Raymond Wedro, A2C Edward DeShae, and A1C George Howe. (Air Force photo)

GRUMMAN, October 14, 1966

6 July 1966 SAR

Soggy but safe, this Air Force pilot climbs out of Albatross after being rescued in Tonkin Gulf. Aerospace Rescue & Recovery flight teams stationed in South Vietnam are going deep into enemy territory to make daring saves of downed U.S. airmen. (Air Force photo)

