

Det 638 ARRS PJ Daily Log
June 1967 - March 1971

|        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|--------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 28 Feb | Rhody on First Alert Acft + Gear checkedMission broke at 10:55, LRP Team amb-ushed 22 miles north <sup>west</sup> of base. Three menDead, 3 wounded, 2 badly. Went in withAlert + Mad 1, Area had been suppressed (supp-ressedly) He went into a hover, afterlocating smoke, at tree top level (about50 ft, got ready to go out on Penetrator,when we received automatic fire fromthose damn VC Old Pette took 23 hitswhich we spotted when we landed at a"Huey" outfit for emergency fuel takencame back to Bien Hoa, while "B" |
|--------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|