

FOUR PARARESCUEMEN from the 41st Aerospace Rescue and Recovery Squadron at McClellan performed a static line jump last Friday from an HC-130, with their parachutes opening at 12,620 feet above the ground, breaking the highest recorded static line jump, which was 10,000 feet. The pararescuemen who made this jump were MSgt. Robert G. Wheeler, MSgt. Lawrence W. Wellington, TSgt. Kelsey R. Adams and TSgt. Terry L. Wetzel. (USAF photo)