

TSgt. Randy McComb took his designation as the Outstanding Career Serviceman of the Year at Kirtland AFB chin-up. He has completed one year of college work. (U.S. Air Force Photo by SrA John Clendenin)

1550ATTW NCOs servicemen of year at Kirtland AFB

KIRTLAND AFB, NM—Two 1550th Aircrew Training and Test Wing NCOs here are the base's Outstanding Servicemen of the Year for 1976.

MSgt. Wilford Box, first sergeant in the Wing's technical training squadron, is the outstanding senior serviceman and TSgt. Randy McComb, a pararescue instructor, is the outstanding career serviceman.

Sergeant Box has been a Kirtland AFB since January 1976. He was one of the first to come from Hill AFB, UT, to help set up the 1550th ATTW's move to Kirtland AFB.

A native of Tennessee, Sergeant Box joined the Air Force in 1957 and holds the Meritorious Service Medal and Air Force Commendation Medal with one oak leaf cluster. He was Kirtland AFB's Outstanding Senior Serviceman of the Quarter in the first quarter of 1976.

Sergeant McComb also moved to Kirtland AFB, from Hill AFB in January 1976. Born in Texas, he has been in the Air Force since 1966 and holds the Silver Star with one oak leaf cluster, Distinguished Flying Cross with two oak leaf clusters, Airman's Medal, Air Medal with 10 oak leaf clusters, Purple Heart and Air Force Commendation Medal.

He was the base's Outstanding Career Serviceman of the Quarter for the second quarter of 1976.