

CITATION TO ACCOMPANY THE AWARD OF

THE DISTINGUISHED FLYING CROSS
(SECOND OAK LEAF CLUSTER)

TO

STAFF SERGEANT AARON D. FARRIOR

Staff Sergeant Aaron D. Farrow distinguished himself by extraordinary achievement while participating in aerial flight as a HH-3E Pararescue Technician in Southeast Asia on 15 November 1966. On that date, Sergeant Farrow exposed himself to hostile fire while making a successful recovery of a friendly pilot whose aircraft had been downed over hostile territory. The professional competence, aerial skill, and devotion to duty displayed by Sergeant Farrow reflect great credit upon himself and the United States Air Force.
